Main characteristics/features

Geographical area

Hà Giang Shan tuyết tea possesses distinctive appearance and quality. The buds are young and rough, tightly twisted, silver (snow)-tipped, and the leaves big and round. When brewed, the tea is shiny with distinctive eye-catching yellowish green colour, natural aroma, a light bitter taste and sweet aftertaste. It is a perfect combination of the taste and the aroma.

Districts of Bắc Quang (4 communes), Quang Bình (8 communes), Xin Mần (11 communes), Hoàng Su Phì (11 communes), Vị Xuyên (8 communes), and Hà Giang city (2 communes), Hà Giang province.

Production and processing

Link between product and territory

Thanks to favourable natural conditions, the use of pesticides and growth stimulants is not employed. To prevent pests and diseases, the farmers employ manual methods or make biological pesticides from lime and pomelo skin, garlic, pepper, etc. In Hà Giang, the farmers also keep the special long-held tradition of not cultivating the tea on these three days in the lunar calendar: Days of the Thunder God, Wind God, and Wild Boars.

Hà Giang Shan tuyết tea's peculiarity is thanks to the cool climate, the fog and mist covering the tea all year round, etc. and the completely organic cultivation practice of the local farmers.
